

Dr. Lance Miller, adjunct instructor at Montcalm Community College (MCC), jokes about being the oldest person on staff, as well as the one with the least amount of hair.

"I've been here at MCC since 1997 and have had students in classes that inform me that their mom or dad were in my classes years ago," Dr. Miller said.

Beginning his teaching career in 1970, Dr. Miller began his teaching career in 1970.

the classroom, which is rich in making added, "I've learned as much from students as they have from me."

Dr. Miller is fulfilled in what he does as an educator, with a teaching philosophy that applies to life.

"Following the inner guide is important – that is, finding what is most meaningful, what enhances life for oneself and others," he said. "One needs to go deep to find that, though, and sometimes it's the pain that takes us there."